RULES AND REGULATIONS.

The unlawful entrance to the grounds will be punished to the full extent

The law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating drinks in the vicinity of the NOTE .- All officers of the Society are constituted a Special Police for the Precaution.

Those who propose making entries will very much oblige the Secretary if they will, before leaving home, make a list of all the articles they wish to enter and the class to which they belong, and sign their names in full at the bottom. This will enable him to get their names correct on the book.

Rules for Exhibitors.

I. Any member may enter as many animals or articles as he or she may own. 50 cents extra will be charged in each case of entry of broke horses. Trains of oxen from townships must pay entry. Animals in trains may compete singly by the owners becoming Members of the Society.

II. Competition for Premiums open to all. III. All entries for competition should be made and entered upon the Secretary's books on or before 10 o'clock the second day of the Fair. Persons living at a distance may, if they prefer make their entries by letter, stating the

V. No article or animal shall be entitled to compete for more than one premium, except cattle in trains. Pairs of horses may compete singly.

VI. All persons exhibiting live stock under two years old, shall state the true age of each animal in years and months. Exhibitors of blood stock will be required to give satisfactory written or printed pedigree of the same, before being presented to the proper committees for examination of premiums, and all questions relating to such pedigrees shall be determined by said Committee, or the Board. VII All snimals usually broke to lead, must be exhibited to awarding mmittees within the ring, and must be broke so as to be manageable there. VIII. No article or animal entered for exhibition can be removed till the close of the Fair, unless by parmission of the managers, without forfeiting pre-

IX. Pens will be provided for eattle, skeep and swine, and hay and water free for all animals on exhibition. And the grounds will be carefully watched at night, and all animals protected from injury.

X. The ring will be free for the exercise of horses on exhibition, under the management of the Marshale, at such times as they may direct. XI. No persons will be allowed to drive upon the track at any time, un iess by permission of the Marshals. XII. Competitors on field crops, shall be governed in their statements by rules prescribed by the Ohio State Board of Agriculture, and no premiums shall be awarded without a full and satisfactory statement in writing, to be for-

XV. All claims of errors in the awards of premiums must be presented to the Board or filed with the Secretary on or before the first meeting after publication of such awards, or the same shall be deemed to have been waived. XVI. All premiums awarded shall be called for within 3 months from the time awarded, or same will be deemed to have been donated to the society.

Rules for Committees.

I. Committees for each day will meet at the Secretary's office at 10 o'clock A. M. Judges are requested to report themselves promptly, as vacancies will be filled.

II. No Premiums will be awarded for objects not meritorious. III. Committees will be cautious in giving cards; their reports must corespond entirely with the manner in which cards are given. IV. Reports must be intelligibly marked or written out in full, and the names and post offices of all judges must be affixed and the report must be returned to the Secretary as soon as practicable after the examinations are made. V. Whenever articles of superior merit are exhibited, for which no premiums have been offered, the awarding committee may recommend a 1st or 2d premium on the back of awards, so that the Secretary may report the same to the Board for further action.

Awarding Committees must not attach Premium Cards to articles for which no Premiums are offered. If no Premium has been offered, the entry on the books will be marked "Dis."-i. e., Discretionary.

VI. No person will be allowed to act as awarding committee on classes where he or she may be on exhibitor. MAKING ENTRIES.—Persons making entries, should carefully examine the Premium list, and ascertain PRECISELY the class in which to enter, then let the number of the class and articles or animals to be entered BE PLAINLY WRITTEN OUT.
